Parent Questionnaires 2016

Thank you for taking the time to fill in the 2016 Parental Questionnaire. Feedback was incredibly positive. We would like to share with you the main themes:

Key Strengths:

- School ethos - friendliness of staff
- Impact of values and spiritual education
- Quality of teaching
- Quality of leadership
- Community links
- Quality of learning environment - both inside and outside
- Overall quality of communication
- Wide range of extracurricular activities.

Key Areas to Develop:

- Car parking (double parking)
- Reading schemes (specifically Infants)
- General Reading books
- Yellow and Red card system (communication)
- Homework (amount and complexity)
- Continue pace of recent developments.

Thank you for this feedback. It's good to know what you think is going well and what could be improved further. We fully agree with the areas to develop and work has already started to address them. We have included all of the key improvements in our School Improvement/Development Plan. We will feedback to you throughout the year how we are progressing with these. In the Spring Term we will be setting up a focus group to review the new developments.

Friends of the School

Welcome back! Hope everyone has had a fantastic Christmas and New Year. FOS are excited for the forthcoming term and look forward to sharing our events with you!

Discos - Tuesday, 10th January 2017 - Infants 3.30 - 5pm, Juniors 5.30 - 7pm. £1.50 on arrival.

Any volunteers would be very welcome to help out, any amount of time that can be spared would be appreciated, it doesn't have to be for the whole disco! Please give your name in at the school office. Many thanks.
